COURSE DESCRIPTION AND OBJECTIVES:

History 399B2 focuses on the causes, course and social impact of the First World War as well as the way the war has been portrayed in films and literature. Students will read monographs, memoirs, and primary source documents, view both documentary and dramatic films, and engage in thoughtful discussion of the issues presented.

Among those issues are:

- The role of imperialism and nationalism in the First World War.
- The strategic and technological problems of the war.
- The effect of the war upon the class system.
- The political and social consequences of the war.
- The experiential gap between soldiers and civilians.
- The role of the First World War in bringing about the Second World War.

CLASS ATTENDENCE AND PERFORMANCE:

Students whose number of absences is more than twice the number of class meeting per week (4 per semester) may be assigned a failing grade for the course at the discretion of the instructor. Students who have more absences than the number of class meetings per week but less than twice the number of class meetings per semester (3 per semester), may be docked a letter grade for the class at the discretion of the instructor. Students who have absences which are less than or equal to the number of class meetings per week (1 or 2 per semester) will not be penalized. Please keep absences in reserve for unforeseen circumstances. This penalty may be waived in the event of a serious and documented emergency. Class should begin punctually, and student not in his seat at the beginning of class will be considered to be tardy. Two tardies equal one absence. If you anticipate that you might be late please email the instructor beforehand.

CLASS PARTICIPATION:

Students are expected and encouraged to participate in class discussions. Good class participation requires that student keep up with their reading assignments.

WITHDRAWAL POLICY: Students are encouraged to read the withdrawal policy found at <http://www.mga.edu/registrar/dropadd.aspx> before dropping or withdrawing from a class.

DELAYED OPENING OR CLOSING OF THE UNIVERSITY:

Please consult the local media and/or the university website for campus closings due to weather etc.

END OF COURSE EVALUATIONS:

Student evaluations of faculty are administered online at the end of each term/session for all courses with 5 or more students. Students will receive an email containing a link to a survey for each course in which they are enrolled. All responses are anonymous.
